

POLICE HAVE CRIMINAL TRIO IN CUSTODY

ED MALLEY AND OFFICERS DO GOOD WORK IN ARREST-ING BURGLARS

Conan Doyle might have been imbued with the idea that he was all to the good when it came to capturing a criminal, but we believe we can equal his tactics by the work of Chief, of Police Ed Malley.

About two weeks ago the Oasis saloon was broken into and a few articles stolen. Prior to that the cabin of Owen Jackson, situated near the Midway mine, was entered and a gold watch and several trinkets were abstracted. Chief Malley and his officers have been on the hunt for these criminals ever since the burglaries.

On the morning following the Oasis robbery, Officer Frank Walsh arrested a party giving the name of John Doe McDonald. There was strong evidence pointing toward his being implicated in the burglary and he was sentenced to serve 45 days in the county jail on a charge of vagrancy. This was done in order to hold him as a witness. The following day one of his companions, who gave his name as John Doe Martin, was taken into custody and when searched, the revolver taken from the Oasis was found on his person. Martin in talking let slip the information that there was a third member in the gang, who was the leader.

A search was made in this city, but No. 3 could not be found.
Chief Malley notified the officers in the surrounding towns, and on Saturday evening was informed by Under Sheriff Mike Cahalan of Goldfield, that his man was in custody there. He had been arrested by a deputy and on the road to the jail gave his captor the slip, but was recaptured later in the evening.

Chief Malley brought him to To-nopah Sunday and he was booked under the name of Tom Martin.
Yesterday the officers recovered the watch and trinkets of Mr. Jackson, from a place where they had been buried, along with a compass and ring taken from the Oasis. Several packages of laundry were also recovered from a cabin where they had been stored. These articles had been stolen by John Doe Martin from a laundry wagon. A grip taken from the Phoenix lodging house was also recovered. The men, when they first arrived here, took rooms at the Phoenix, and were suspected by the proprietor of having taken the grip.

The capture of the men is the result of hard work on the part of the chief of police and his deputies, to whom great credit is due.
Tonopah, in the past, has always boasted of the fact that very few vags loitered within our midst, for whenever one was arrested he was immediately given a few hours in which to hit the trail. Owing to these precautions there have been very few petty depredations committed.

The two Martins will be given a preliminary hearing before Judge Atkinson today and it is safe to say that the evidence is so strong they will be bound over.

NEVADA SOIL DOES IT

Apple blossoms in September are something out of the natural order of things, but they can be seen on the apple tree in front of the Bakery saloon. This tree was full of blossoms in the spring, but the early frosts nipped them. Last Friday two beautiful clusters of blossoms were noticed in the tree, and Ray Harris, proprietor of the Bakery, would like to know what it all means.—Elko Independent.

BAILLY LEASE AT ELLENDALE MAKES FIND

HAVE ENCOUNTERED ORE BODY TWO FEET IN WIDTH AT SHALLOW DEPTH

James Gilbert, of the Simplex auto livery, visited Ellendale yesterday and during his stay there took in the places that are being worked.

He states that at the main property the rich pay streaks maintains a width of about 12 inches, while the balance of the vein will assay about $500 to the ton for a width of 2 feet. The owners are still sacking ore and will make the second shipment in a very short time.

"The Bailly lease," said Mr. Gilbert, "has encountered a vein nearly two feet in width from which good assays have been received.
This property is located on the opposite side of Ellen hill from the big strike. They will continue sinking until a greater depth is attained, when drifting will be started."

BISHOP NOW AFTER A GAME WITH TONOPAH

THEY WILL PROBABLY BE AC-COMMODATED WHEN WE WIN THE PENNANT

Bishop has caught the aspiration fever and is now clamoring for the scalps of the Tonopah ball team so as to be the champions of Nevada and eastern California. In a game there a few days ago they defeated the Independence players, thereby winning the championship of that country.

Just as soon as Tonopah secures the pennant from Goldfield, we will be pleased to accommodate the Inyo players, but in the meantime we beg them to be patient. There are two games scheduled to be played with Goldfield, and to meet Bishop, Tonopah will have to win both. Our nine as it stands may defeat the southerners—and it may not. If the fates and fortune smile our way, we will be the victors, but if the result depends upon good ball playing, we have our doubts.
In all the games this season, the victories have been won by the battery, not by team work.

LAS VEGAS HAS CHAPTER OF EASTERN STAR

ORDER INSTALLED LAST EVE-NING BY OFFICERS FROM TONOPAH

Sheriff J. J. Owens, who is associate grand patron of the grand lodge, Order of Eastern Star of Nevada, left yesterday for Las Vegas, where he will institute a chapter of the Eastern Star. He was accompanied by Mrs. Alice Sheridan, Mrs.
Christine Stevens, and Mrs. Grace Sherwell. The new chapter was organized last evening and from the program announced, was followed by a sumptuous banquet. The installation officers are expected to return to this city on the evening train.

EXPRESSES THANKS TO
THE POLICE OFFICERS

I desire to express my thanks and appreciation to Chief of Police Ed Malley, his officers and Judge H. H. Atkinson, for their efficient work in recovering the valuables stolen from my cabin several weeks ago. The articles stolen were of a great value to me, more on account of their memories than of their intrinsic worth, and their restoration is appreciated.

ONE SIDED SCRAP TAKES PLACE ON MAIN STREET YES-TERDAY

Yesterday afternoon while the wind was amusing itself by blowing all the dust on Main street down to Millers and then back up through the town and out toward Gold mountain, an impromptu scrap occurred at the intersection of Main and Brougher avenue. The defendant in the case was standing at the corner, apparently oblivious to his surroundings. He was facing the fire house, when an individual, in a half intoxicated condition, came walking down Brougher avenue.
He no sooner spied the first named party, than he approached and let go a haymaker, which after landing caused the smitten one considerable surprise with an equal amount of pain. The recipient of the swing turned around and started to defend himself. His antagonist immediately put down his hands and began making profuse apologies, stating that it was a case of mistaken identity as he had thought the party to be another. The apology was accepted and after a short conversation the two separated, number one going up the street rubbing his neck while number two wended his way northwards, nourishing a sore fist.

CLARK COUNTY HAS A NEW CRITERION

The Clark County Review, an attractive and newsy sheet, has arrived at this office. The paper is published at Las Vegas and is edited by Charles C. Corkhill. A goodly amount of advertising mat-shows that the citizens of that section of the state, to say the least, are wide awake and up-to-date. We wish the new journal success.
